17

THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

SUPREME COURT

VANCOUVER, B.C.

1st June, 1918.

Sir Robert A. Falconer,

Toronto University,

Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir Robert:-

Mr. J. P. Hogg, Barrister of this city, who as a married man has shown his patriotism by joining the 1st Canadian Tank Battalion and is now in Ottawa, is anxious to become connected with the Institution popularly known as the Khaki Club. He has appeared before me repeatedly in Court and I found him well versed in law. I might add that his reputation is beyond question both as to character and integrity. He has also academic training which should fit him for usefulness in connection with the work of the College.

Yours truly,

W. A. Macdonald

Macdonald, W A

June 1918

June 7th, 1918

Honourable Mr. Justice Macdonald,

Supreme Court,

Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Several gentlemen have written to me about Mr. Pitcairn Hogg. I have nothing to do with the appointments to these overseas positions in the Khaki University. I simply sit on the Canadian Committee. I have advised Mr. Hogg to apply to President Tory.

Yours sincerely,

President.